

Dear Tigers,

Each year, the pages of this yearbook capture not only the faces and milestones of our students, faculty, and staff, but the heartbeat of East Central University—our traditions, relationships, progress, and the community that makes ECU a place like no other.

As you flip through these pages, I hope you are reminded of the laughter between classes, the friendships forged in late-night study sessions, the pride of wearing orange on game day, and the quiet moments of growth that mark your journey. Whether you arrived on campus for the first time this year or prepared to walk across the graduation stage, each of you has left a meaningful mark on ECU.

This has been a year of transformation and momentum. Together, we've launched new initiatives, celebrated achievements, and laid the groundwork for an exciting future through our ECU Forward Capital Campaign. I'm proud of the determination and resilience you have shown! Traits that define what it means to be a TIGER.

To our graduating seniors: You carry the spirit of ECU with you into the world. Never forget where you started and know you will always have a home here. To our returning students: I look forward to all that you will continue to accomplish. The best is yet to come.

Thank you for making this year unforgettable.

Once A Tiger, Always A Tiger
