

Characteristics of a PLC Student

I ntegrity
C andor
A ccountability
R espect
E xcellence

Apply Today!

CONTACT INFO

TINA DAVIS
580-559-5664
tdavis@ecok.edu

President's Leadership Class

Qualifications

Successful applicants must:

- Demonstrate outstanding leadership throughout high school
- Meet ECU's admission requirements and apply for admission
- Earn an ACT composite score of 20 or higher or have a minimum 3.5 high school GPA
- Enroll as a first-time, full-time freshman for the fall semester

The President's Leadership Class (PLC) at East Central University is a prestigious, selective leadership development program that prepares the next generation of leaders at ECU and across Oklahoma.

PLC members are high-achieving students who demonstrate academic excellence, leadership potential, and a commitment to serving their communities. Throughout the program, students engage with university leadership, including the ECU President, while building relationships with influential campus, community, and state leaders. These experiences provide valuable opportunities for personal growth, professional development, and lifelong friendship.

Expectations

- ▶ Attend all required program meetings, events, and retreats
- ▶ Participate in campus-sponsored events, programs, and banquets
- ▶ Live on campus while participating in the program
- ▶ Maintain full-time enrollment each semester
- ▶ Maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher
- ▶ Serve as ambassadors for East Central University and work closely with President Godwin
- ▶ Enroll in the PLC sections of UNIV 1001 and 1201

President's Leadership Class VISOR BANK

Benefits

- Travel with your cohort to destinations such as New York City and Washington, D.C.
- Participate in exclusive leadership seminars, retreats, and community service projects
- Represent East Central University at special events as a student ambassador
- Receive a $1,500 scholarship each semester, including a $750 tuition scholarship and a $750 housing waiver
- Build lasting relationships with fellow student leaders, faculty, and university leadership
- If you're passionate about making a difference, eager to discover your potential, and ready to lead from your first day at ECU, the President's Leadership Class is for you.