New Scholarship

THE JIM & LINDA LILLARD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

After both of my parents passed away my husband and I set down and talked about wanting to give back to a couple places that had really made an impact on either us or my parents - it was during this conversation that the ideal of creating a scholarship at East Central came up. Although, neither one of my parents attended college it was always something they encouraged and celebrated. They both were long time residents of Ada and always felt like the growth of the college really made Ada a special place to be.

When it came to deciding on a creating a scholarship another one of the biggest factors goes back to how Adam and I both grew up. For both of us financially sometimes the answer just had to be “no” to a new experience or opportunity even though both sets of our parents worked extremely hard to help provide all they could. During later years in college this meant working and relying on scholarships to help supplement what we couldn't afford out-of-pocket. We wanted to be able to ease that same burden on someone else in a way where we could potentially turn a “no” for being able to pay for the college semester into a “yes”. While at East Central, Adam and I both gained a lot of experiences that I truly do not think we would have had at a larger college, these experiences I believe continue to impact our success today. For me the Business School opened my eyes to a larger future. I had professors who helped guide me when making choices and who encouraged me to apply for Internships early on in college and my full time jobs closer to graduation.

Without the encouragement of my professors and experiences through the business scholars program I do not think I would have went into public accounting and would have ended up now working as a Controller for a large medical company. For Adam the social work program created just as strong of a foundation he was really able to use what he learned at East Central to build on through his Graduate degree and put into practice becoming a Mental Health Clinician. It really is true what they say “Once a Tiger, Always a Tiger”.

A WORD FROM THE President

Wendell L. Godwin
East Central University President

It has been an extraordinary year since last July when I assumed the role of President at ECU. This past year has been marked by outstanding achievements and an unwavering commitment to engagement. Thanks to the invaluable support of the ECU Foundation and our donors, we have achieved new milestones in event attendance, student engagement, and academic programming.

One of my main goals this academic year was to boost attendance at athletic and fine arts events. I am happy to announce that we have surpassed expectations on both accounts. Through generous donations, ECU was able to provide meals to the ECU family before performances and during sporting events. Eating together naturally builds relationships amongst our campus community, which in turn, has led to our faculty and staff becoming more engaged and building lifetime bonds with our students.

Not only have our students benefitted from increased attendance at their events, but also, your generosity has provided educational and cultural experiences for them. This past year, we were able to provide the pep bus for the student body to attend away games. Your donations also aided us in sponsoring student trips to Oklahoma City, New York, Chicago, New Orleans, Washington DC, and even Uganda. It helped us offset costs for our athletes and students to attend our football bowl game in Texas.

To further enhance engagement of student life and incentivize our students to live on campus, we have undertaken extensive renovations of Briles Hall bathrooms. These renovations, costing over $1.1 million, have long been overdue. These new bathrooms are sure to enhance the comfort and overall quality of our student life.

There has even been more engagement with our academic programming this past year. After hearing from faculty, staff, and students, the General Education Committee finished their overwhelming task of completely revising the General Education Curriculum. Taking our academic programs down to 120 credit hours (from 124) will greatly assist our students to finish their degrees in 4 years while also mitigating student loan debt. We would still be working on this project were it not for our committed faculty engaging with our core curriculum during this momentous task.

As we reflect on this year, let us remain steadfast in our commitment to engagement and fostering an environment that promotes growth, success, and community at ECU in the years to come. Together, we will continue to build upon our achievements and create a bright future.

A WORD FROM THE

C.E.O.

It is an extreme honor to continue to serve the faculty, staff, and students at East Central University. It is a privilege to represent the East Central University Foundation, the wonderful Foundation staff, the dedicated Board of Trustees, and the hard-working Executive Committee.

Many wonderful things are planned for ECU this year. It is a privilege to serve the ECU Foundation, the University, and President Wendell Godwin, helping develop and implement his insightful visions. President Godwin has brought new energy, focus, and attention to the programs the Foundation supports. It is wonderful having an alum serve once again as President of the University.

This year the Foundation will continue focus on gifts from Estate and Planned Giving. Several large gifts have been received which allow our students to experience wonderful opportunities and travel, generous scholarships, and accelerate other programming across campus. This year we encourage all of our friends to consider East Central University in your Estate and Planned Giving.

I would be remiss if I did not underscore the extreme value of our Foundation staff. COO Buffy Lovelis entering her 16th year serving East Central University, Dr. Gerald Williamson, Senior Development Officer who continues to be a friend and ambassador for the University, and Ms. Jessica Sanchez, our Secretary, as well as our wonderful student worker, Ms. Sadie Stonecipher.

We want to thank all of you for your continued support of the Foundation.

WAYS TO GIVE

Gifts to the Foundation, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization under the IRS code, are tax-deductible to the extent of the law and can be used as a tax-saving tool.

GIFTS OF CASH

These gifts are always welcome because they are available immediately to strengthen the University or begin earning income for the future.

GIFTS OF SECURITIES

These gifts include stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and IRAs, and also are available immediately to impact the work of the Foundation.

GIFTS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Personal property can include coin collections, antique cars, gun collections, artwork, etc.

GIFTS OF REAL PROPERTY

Real estate, homes, business property and farmland that has grown in value can result in tax advantages through a charitable gift to the Foundation.

GIFTS OF TRUSTS

This can include charitable remainder trusts, unitrusts, lead trusts, family trusts, annuity trusts, etc., which can avoid capital gains taxes and provide an annual income for life.

GIFTS OF BEQUESTS

At a donor's death, gifts directed by a will or a living trust are deducted from the most highly taxed portion of the donor's estate, resulting in less taxes and a larger distribution of the estate to the heirs. This is perhaps the most basic and flexible of estate planning instruments.

GIFTS OF INSURANCE

By assigning ownership to the Foundation or making the Foundation the beneficiary of a life insurance policy that is no longer needed for its original purpose (such as sheltering children's education), a donor can make a substantial gift at a low cost and take an immediate income tax deduction for the value of the policy. A donor then can contribute an amount equal to the policy's premiums to the Foundation and deduct that gift as a charitable contribution. Proceeds of the policy will pass to the Foundation free of estate taxes.

President's

Circle

The President's Circle is an exclusive group of individuals and businesses who provide targeted support for the advancement of East Central University. This important group provides the University and the President with access to non-designated funds that can be used to enhance educational experiences and opportunities for students, faculty and staff.
